SCHOOL VISION STATEMENT, LOGO AND MOTTO POLICY

Rationale:
Eaglehawk North Primary School is committed to maintaining its high profile in the local community and wishes to encapsulate its spirit in a readily identifiable motto and logo.

Purpose:
1. To commit our school to a vision statement that defines the purpose and reason for our school's existence.
2. To create a motto that challenges our staff, students and community.
3. To establish a logo that is readily identifiable as belonging to our school.

Guidelines for Implementation:
1. As a result of staff and council deliberations an agreed vision statement, motto and logo has been established.
2. All future items that are identifiable as being part of Eaglehawk North Primary School may carry the motto, logo and/or vision statement as appropriate.
3. The eagle with spread wings has been adopted as the logo of Eaglehawk North Primary School.
4. The following statements are adopted as the motto and vision statement of the Eaglehawk North Primary School.
5. Within the context of student support, the meanings encapsulated in the statements, logo and motto will be regularly discussed and reinforced with children.

Vision Statement

Our purpose is to provide high quality and progressive education in an environment that

- values teamwork
- applauds excellence
- encourages participation
